

Dr. Ismael Cortés

Ismael Cortés completed his M.A. Philosophy at the University of Granada. At the UNESCO Chair of Philosophy for Peace, he gained his Ph.D. on International Conflicts and Development Studies with an international award. His research interest focuses on the relation between culture and politics, by analysing how ideologies constitute legal norms, policy strategies, and action programs. During his academic career, Ismael has been a visiting researcher at the School of Critical Theory of Nottingham, the Human Rights Institute "Gregorio Peces-Barba" of Madrid and the CEU Roma Studies Program of Budapest. He has worked as a policy analyst for Brussels based think tanks such as the Open Society European Policy Institute and the Centre for European Policy Studies. He has served as an MP in the Congress of Deputies of Spain. He is author of dozens of peer review articles in academic journals, and hundreds of op-eds articles in newspapers. He also wrote the book Sueños y sombras sobre los gitanos. La actualidad de un racismo histórico (Bellaterra, 2021).
