Participation Guidelines and Space Commitments:

- Survey on WOMNET's Future: Before our session, we warmly invite you to take a few moments to anonymously complete this survey by Sunday, 27th of October. The feedback you share will help shape recommendations for the ERIACNET4U Initiative's WOMNET which we'll jointly discuss and refine. Thank you! The ERIACNET4EU initiative focuses on protecting, promoting, and raising awareness of the rights of Roma citizens in the EU, reinforcing EU values such as equality, justice, and non-discrimination. It aims to build a more democratic EU where all citizens have equal access to and protection of their rights. Click here for the survey.
- Jointly holding space: We are collectively responsible for creating a respectful and supportive environment. We commit to upholding the values and policies that guide us, forming a temporary community during our time together. We all share the responsibility to maintain this space with intention, care, and accountability.
- For technical support contact the ERIAC team.
- Interactions should be grounded in respect, intention, and care.
- ERIAC diversity founding principle
- Share as much or as little as you feel comfortable with—no need to apologize for your boundaries.
