Fundacja Jaw Dikh	Poland	Reclaiming Roma Memory: Art, Roma Holocaust and Transnational Narratives in Europe	The project aims to produce a bilingual (Polish-English) publication accompanying the exhibition of Małgorzata Mirga-Tas at Muzeum Palace. The publication goes beyond a traditional exhibition catalogue. It combines artistic documentation with one of the first scholarly attempts to document the history of the Roma genocide in the Podhale region and surrounding areas. The project addresses the structural invisibility of Roma history and contributes to combating antigypsyism by integrating Ro	6	01.07.2026	31.12.2026	10.000 €
Media Voice	Slovakia	PARAMISARK A	Paramisarka is a six-part documentary series about Roma women writers from the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Despite numerous obstacles, including double discrimination, they have found their own voices through writing. The series explores their artistic work and their personal stories, highlighting themes significant to Roma women and the wider community. It reflects the Romani experience within the broader context of European history, from World War II and the communism to the present day.	6	01.07.2026	31.12.2026	10.000 €
Rampa Prenestina APS	Italy	Amare RomAE	A 10-day immersive festival of Roma cultures in Rome, reimagining the city with multiple events: screenings of films by national and international Roma creators, music performances, alongside experimental showcases of contemporary visual art, theatre, and hybrid live acts. The festival moves as an evolving national and international platform where art and Roma art-ivism intersect and take shape across the city, activating both cultural institutions and a wide network of urban and suburban spaces	6	01.07.2026	31.12.2026	10.000 €
Roma Collective Art&Culture Association	Romania	Loly – Wearing Our Story	In 'Loly – Wearing Our Story', fashion serves as a means of cultural activism, enabling 30 young people from Apalina and Tonciu in Mureş County to collaborate in the creation of a Roma-inspired clothing collection. Under the mentorship of Roma designer Zita Moldovan, participants explore their Roma heritage, identity, and rights through creative workshops, using self determined expression to counter antigypsyism. The project is co-joined by the local communities and it promotes EU values.	6	01.06.2026	30.11.2026	10.000 €

Somany	France	TALES FROM THE WAGON ANIMATION LAB	Tales from the Wagon is a Roma-led, cross-border animation lab uniting 10 Roma and non-Roma artists (min. 60% women) from across Europe to co-create a 30-minute animated draft film. The lab produces key visuals and a full animatic, strengthening Roma authorship, challenging antigypsyism, and promoting EU values of equality, inclusion, and cultural diversity, while engaging Roma and non-Roma communities through screenings, dialogue, and workshops.	6	01.06.2026	30.11.2026	10.000 €
Associazione di promozione sociale Upre Roma	Italy	Beyond Closure: Chiesa Rossa – Memory, Resistance and Self-Determination	This project produces a participatory documentary on the Roma community of Via Chiesa Rossa, Milan, currently facing possible closure. Following the process in real time — including a community-led cooperative housing proposal — it collects testimonies, preserves historical memory, and challenges dominant narratives through self-representation, with CFP Bauer film students and weekly social media content.	7	15.06.2026	15.12.2026	10.000 €
